WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1866.

TO UNION MEN.

THE WORK BEFORE THEM.

At a meeting of the Republican Executive County Committee, at Headquarters, on Saturday, it was, on motion of John H. Stewart, Esq.,

RESOLVED, That we urge upon our political friends in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, and throughout the county, to devote the coming week exclusively to the perfecting of their party organizations, the appointment of Book and Vigilance Committees in every Ward, Borough, Township and Election Precinct, the appointment of Challengers at polls, and such other matters of detail as will insure an overwhelming Republican triumph.

Let every patriotic citizen, at this critical hour, at whatever personal sacrifice, give one week of labor to the final preparations for the great struggle now so closely at hand.

Headquarters open at all hours for distribution of tickets, posters for the polls, &c., &c.

JOHN W. RIDDELL,
Chairman County Committee.
T. M. BAINE, Secretary.

CANDIDATES FOR STATE SENATE.

Some changes having occurred in the Senatorial candidates, it has become necessary to repeat the list. It now stands:

Republican.	Democratic.
1. Jacob Sidwell,	W. McCandless,
8. W. Worthington,	James Sill,
9. Nicholas Hunter,	J. Dupuey Davis,
10.	Charlotte Burnett,
15. Col. A. J. Frick,	Geo. D. Jackson,
16. D. Dawson Coleman,	Jere. Hoffman,
17. E. Dillingfelt,	Abraham Colins,
J. W. Fisher,	W. Hayes Greer,
20 Alex. Thomas,	R. F. Meyers,
21. J. W. Denford,	Thos. B. Searight,
22. A. W. Taylor,	J. R. Welsh,
23. Jas. C. Brown,	John W. Irwin.

In the 10th District Mr. C. F. ROCKWELL was nominated by the Republicans, but he peremptorily declined. It is not probable the Republicans will bring forward another man, as the district is hopelessly Democratic.

In the 24th District, the Democrats nominated Mr. SAMUEL BIGGER; but Mr. J. B. WELSH announcing himself as an independent candidate, Mr. BIGGER withdrew in his favor. Mr. WELSH has hitherto acted with the Republicans, and held seats in the last two Legislatures by their favor. It is possible he may haul off, but his running perils only himself.

CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.

In view of the changes in candidates we think it best to give a perfected list. No further alterations are to be apprehended.

Dist.	Republicans.	Democrats.
1.	Charles Gibbons.	S. J. Randall.
2.	Charles O'Neill.	John Hailman.
3.	Leonard Myers.	Chas Buckwalter.
4.	W. D. Kelley.	John Welsh.
5.	C. N. Taylor.	H. F. Ross.
6.	Darlington Thomas.	J. M. Bell.
7.	J. M. Bredonall.	Nanthanial Pratt.
8.	D. J. Lincoln.	G. L. Getz.
9.	Thaddeus Stevens.	S. H. Reynolds.
10.	Hendrick B. Lake.	C. R. Gilfillan.
11.	Wm. Lilly.	W. N. Vanauken.
12.	James Archibald.	Chas. Denniston.
13.	U. Mercur.	Wm. Elwell.
14.	Geo. F. Miller.	Thos. E. Bowers.
15.	R. M. Henderson.	A. G. Glossbrenner.
16.	J. R. H. Koontz.	J. M. Sharpe.
17.	D. J. Morrell.	R. L. Johnson.
18.	F. W. Wilson.	T. P. Wright.
19.	G.W. Scofield.	W. L. Scott.
20.	D. A. Finny.	A. B. McCalmont.
21.	John Covode.	H. P. Wier.
22.	J. K. Moorhead.	J. B. Sweitzer.
23.	Thos. Williams.	R. G. Childs.
24.	G. V. Lawrence.	Wm. Montgomery.

MAJOR GENERAL W. W. AVERILL.

We are glad to see that this gentleman has been appointed Consul-General for the British Provinces, to reside at Montreal. Our personal knowledge of the General enables us to say that no better appointment could be made. This city and Western Pennsylvania owes to the intrepidity and gallantry of General AVERILL and the cavalry forces under his command, their protection on more than one occasion from invasion and probable devastation by EARLY's raiders. As a cavalry officer he never suffered a defeat, while he was the leader of numerous damaging raids, and the hero of many victories. In addition to his high military character General AVERILL is a gentleman of liberal education, of cultivated tastes, and of genial and refined social habits, fit for, and worthy of, the office conferred, or any high consulship in the gift of the President.

THERE are indications that the holders of the Confederate debt are contributing funds to secure, if possible, the success of the Democrats at the ensuing election. They calculate accurately enough the men at whose hands, if any, it is practicable to get the rebel obligations assumed by the general government; but they will soon discover they have sent good money after bad. The Democrats have not yet sufficiently purged their complicity with the rebellion, and will have awhile longer to warm their heels outside the palaces of the government.

THE Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist, which earnestly supports the President's Policy, shows to what extent it has been reconstructed by such paragraphs as these:

"The Stars and Stripes is a flag befouled all over with wrong and blackguard despotism that daily affronts God by the villainies it does His poor and persecuted people."

Now, we hold that men who cherish such sentiments might as well occupy back seats awhile longer.

THE Democrats have evidently given Mr. CLYMER up as a "dead duck." This is seen in the swaps their electioneerers are offering to make. Why else should they offer votes for GRANT in exchange for votes for their candidates for Congress or the Legislature? We entreat Republicans to abstain from bartering in this way. Stand by the whole ticket, and all will be well.

IN a Democratic procession in Baltimore on Thursday night, a transparency was carried with the following motto: "We are in favor of negro suffrage—the way they suffered at New Orleans." A coffin was carried with the label: "John L. Thomas' and Thad. Stevens' overcoat."

THE popular judgment at the South is that the President misapprehended himself by his Chicago trip, and that the Republicans will defeat the cause of rebel government.

—The Midnight Boys in Blue who attended the Pittsburgh Convention speak in the warmest possible terms of the welcome they met from the open-hearted Democrats of that city. They were entertained at the residences of thirteen citizens, and every man was ready to do the honors. The Midnight Boys were delighted with the reception they met with, and especially the hospitality of the Democrats. Verily, the rebellion has left behind it a strange brood of bedfellows.

Southern Loyalists in Chicago.
Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Gazett.

CHICAGO, Oct. 2, 1866.

Last night the Southern loyalists arrived here. Michigan avenue, fronting the road on which they came in, was fully illuminated.

To-day the city is gay with flags, banners, devices and inscriptions. Business is measurably suspended. Fifty thousand strangers throng the streets. Enthusiasm is at the very highest pitch. Stokes, Maynard, and others, are making speeches. Both Johnsonism and Democracy are wiped out. On next Tuesday Illinois will send Republicans throughout the Union greeting in thunder tones.

Arrival of the City of Paris from Europe—Napoleon's Circular Note.

NEW YORK, October 2.—The steamer City of Paris, from Liverpool 19th, has arrived.

The American war steamers Colorado, Frolic and Swatara were at Southampton.

The Napoleon Circular Note, alluded to through the Cable some days since, is spoken of by the English press as being of the highest importance, and its authorship is attributed to the Emperor. Both the Times and News agree in the opinion that Napoleon harbors no evil thoughts against the independence of Belgium or Switzerland. The semi-official North German Gazette, of Berlin, says the words in reference to the military re-organization for the defence of French territory must not be considered as a menace. The Prussian people are every day becoming more persuaded that a good understanding between Prussia and France is the sure way of solving European questions in the sense of national progress and civilization.

Lee's Arlington Effects—Cholera.

WASHINGTON, October 2.—The household effects left at the Arlington mansion by General Lee, or rather the fragments remaining of them, were yesterday delivered to the agent authorized by General Lee to receive them. This was done, the National Intelligencer says, under an order of the President. It appears that nearly every thing of any value had been stolen. Many valuable heirlooms, including some of the family portraits, were taken from the frames ranked in the large hall of the upper lott of the mansion since 1861. These boxes had been broken open and every thing of real value taken away, and the letters and private papers of the General scattered over the floor.

At the meeting of the Board of Health yesterday the first case of cholera in Washington was reported. It was that of a gentleman who arrived here from Richmond on Friday. The patient is convalescent. The exemption of this city from cholera disproves the theory that it seeks filthy localities.

St. Louis Fair—Fine Stock.

ST. LOUIS, October 2.—There was a much larger attendance at the Fair to-day than yesterday. The ring exhibition this morning consisted of cattle, of which there was a fine display. In the afternoon there was a splendid show of horses, sheep and hogs. Premiums among them Dixie and Tackey, owned by Richard S. Carr, of St. Louis, who will match either against any horse in the country, except Dexter, on Friday through both races, was postponed till Friday, when they will compete for prizes.

J. P. Robinson, of New York, was elected Treasurer of the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company yesterday.

Grand Cabal Banquet.

BOSTON, Oct. 2.—Cyrus W. Field arrived in Boston this afternoon, and will leave for New York to-morrow.

On Monday evening, October 1st, a banquet was given in Liverpool to celebrate the success of the Atlantic cable, and was presided over by Lord Stanley, Minister of Foreign Affairs. During the festivities Mr. Field's health was proposed by Lord Stanley, and drank amidst great enthusiasm. A telegram relative to the matter, dated Liverpool, October 1st, 9:20 P. M., was received at the office of the Telegraph Company in Boston at 9:45 the same evening.

Dangerous $500 Counterfeit.

NEW YORK, October 2.—A very dangerous one hundred dollar counterfeit, on the Central National Bank, is this city, is in circulation. The only way for the public to protect themselves will be to refuse for the present, all one hundred dollar National Bank notes, except they are received from sources of well known respectability. One of the specific lines of the counterfeits we have referred to is, that the "s," in the word maintain, on the right hand of the bill is defective and looks like the letter "l." The counterfeiters however, can soon remedy this defect.

Store Murder—Destructive Fire.

NEW YORK, October 2.—The Tribune publishes the confession of Gonzales and Pellicer to the murder of Otera in Brooklyn last fall, but both denied that the murder was planned by Viele. The two former were convicted and sentenced principally upon the evidence of Viele, who is still held.

The extensive locomotive factory of Richard Brown, 57th street and Third Avenue, was damaged by fire last night to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars. Insured.

The Idaho Purchased for Peru.

NEW YORK, October 2.—A Herald Panama correspondent says: The agents of the Peruvian Government have purchased the screw steamer Idaho, 2,616 tons, built in New York for the United States Government but rejected by the Navy Department on account of the Dickinson engines. She will be armed with eight heavy guns and will cruise through the Spanish main to take prizes of Spanish merchantmen.

Saratoga Park Races.

JEROME PARK, N. Y., Oct. 2.—The attendance at the races to-day is very large. In the hurdle race of two miles there were four starters. Citadel won the race in four minutes and six-teen seconds. Young Lexington second, Tennessee third and Yellow Hammer fourth.

The second race was won by Mr. Alexander Walker's bay mare both Irene 1 0 0 and 1 1 1. In the third race, Luther was first, Lendsome second and Knighthood third. Time 2:37.)

Union Pacific Railroad—Sheridan.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—A Tribune special announces the completion of thirty-five miles more track of the Union Pacific Railroad. A hundred miles more will be laid before 1867, when it will take the track to within thirty miles of Denver,

Gen. Sheridan arrived at New Orleans on Sunday. A board of officers has been appointed to investigate the Bourbon affair.

Grand Soldiers' and Sailors' Meeting at Minersville.

MINERSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 2.—A grand mass meeting of the soldiers' and sailors' of the president party, has been held here, is in progress. Fifty vessels and thousands of strangers are in town. Able speakers are addressing multitudes. It is the largest meeting ever held in Schuylkill county.

Steam Fire Engine—Trial Trip Thursday.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—The Atlantic played a game of base ball with the Athletics of Philadelphia, at Hoboken, this week, and won by a score of 25 to 16. The Atlantic is composed of printers of our companion city, Pittsburgh, ar-

WHAT NOW!

No little uncertainty seems to exist in the minds of persons having confidential access to the President as to the course he will take in view of the recent manifestations of public opinion. His supporters of republican antecedents are most of them urging him to accept the Constitutional Amendment as the basis of reconstruction, and to suspend the removal of republican incumbents from offices. These come away from interviews with him confident his purposes are really modified, and that he will adopt a course calculated to appease existing asperities. Many of them are even certain he will cast the weight of his influence at the South in such a manner as to promote the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment. On the other hand, the democratic leaders come from conferences with him under the full persuasion that his plans are unchanged; that he will adhere to his distinctive Policy, and that all office-holders who fail to second his efforts in that direction will be speedily removed. Diversity of impressions, the result of interviews with the President, is not a recent development. While the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, the Civil Rights Bill, and the Connecticut election, were pending, he gave positive assurances to both sides; but, it should be remembered that in these instances, and in many more, he kept faith, not with the Republicans, but with the Democrats. It is, therefore, reasonable to assume that the same result will be worked out in reference to his present professions. He will break his word with the Republicans, and keep it with the Democrats.

MEMBER CLYMER.

This gentleman, in his speech to his party friends in Allegheny, on Monday evening, as reported by the Post, said:

"In 1861 the people thought they heard a shot in Charleston Harbor that told them that there was to be armed rebellion in the land. They gathered them to show that they would fight for the national life with the sword and the bullet. To-day the same law-loving people of this State are gathered together to fight for the national life by the ballot."

True, every word true. But where did he stand, and what did he do, when the people in 1861 "gathered to show that they would fight for the national life?" Did he fight for the national life? Did he, by word, or vote, or act, ever give any encouragement to those who did? Not a bit of it; but all that one cold-blooded Copperhead could do to discourage, to thwart, to weaken, to cripple, to disarm, and to disfranchise the brave men who "gathered" to the front to "fight for the national life" he did. His voice, his votes, his influence and his example were all against them from the beginning to the end of the tremendous struggle. That is his record concerning that "fight." He made it himself, deliberately, persistently and consistently, and the people who "gathered them to show that they would fight for the national life with the sword and the bullet" will hold him to it and settle with him for it; and next Tuesday they will once more "gather together to fight for the national life by the ballot," and give to him such a down-setting as no man ever got in Pennsylvania. That day will demonstrate to him and to Andrew Johnson that to countenance and encourage rebellion and rebels is a business as unprofitable as it is infamous.

SOLDIERS' ORPHANS.

Pennsylvania is the only State, so far, that has assumed the maintenance and education of the orphans of soldiers, left destitute of means and friends to provide for them. Excellent provision has been made for the support and training of these bereaved ones; and, if the existing system shall be persevered in for a few years, all of them will be started in life under auspices fitted to make of them useful men and women. It becomes, therefore, a matter of serious inquiry in the minds of which of the candidates for Governor the interests of these orphans will be safest. Mr. Clymer's sympathies throughout the war were clearly not on the loyal side. Just now he is, indeed, making large professions of zeal for the preservation of the Union, but only because he believes in that way lies the only hope of the beaten rebels regaining political control. Gen. Geary is a soldier, and a valiant one. He knows, by sharp experience, what bereavements on the battle-field are. His feelings run strongly on the side of his comrades in arms. The orphans of such of them as fortunes are specially dear to him, and he will be certain to look after them with fitness paternal solicitude.

REDUCTION OF TAXES.

Congress, at the late session, reduced the taxes to an estimated amount of one hundred millions of dollars. This reduction was designed to inure wholly to the benefit of the laboring and producing classes. Among the articles placed in the free list are building materials, whether for houses in the city or country, slaughtered animals and all agricultural products, except cotton and tobacco. In addition, railroad freights are exempted from taxation, so as to reduce the cost to consumers of all articles transported to home consumption. Moreover, all products consumed in the families of farmers were liable to taxation, but these have been exempted from assessment. These reductions have been accomplished while the public debt has been reduced $100,000,000 since the close of the war. It is, therefore, safe to predict that other reductions will speedily follow.

MEMBERS.

It appears to be a settled point that Maximilian's career as Emperor of Mexico is about closed. The Liberals are pressing upon him closer and closer, and with steadily augmenting forces. The question now is—what next?

The political experience of Mexico for a period of over thirty years affords but little foundation for hope that it will now settle down in peace under a well-ordered government. The elements essential to such a condition seem to be wanting. Rival chieftains, with their factions, composed of ignorant and unreflecting followers, have kept the country in perpetual turmoil, by refusing, as did our rebels, to submit to the decisions of the ballot. Political parties there are warring factions; and hence neither principles nor authority can be regulated and settled by the voice of majorities, as with us.

When Andrew Johnson comes round among us talking about "fighting" what he calls traitors—which means the majority of the American people who are overwhelmingly against him—he is doing what he can to introduce the Mexican system of politics into this country; and in this he is but walking in the footsteps of the men who plunged the country into a long and bloody conflict rather than submit to the will of the majority as expressed in the election of Abraham Lincoln. Now this sort of thing must be rebuked and stopped, or we shall quickly drift into the anarchy, confusion and strife which has so long torn the vitals of Mexico, and made it the poorest and basest of all the nations of Christendom.

Santa Anna is figuring to get in once more; but in the maze of conflicting rumors it is impossible to tell whether he has any prospect of success. The Fenians, too, are being mixed up in the confused imbroglio; but we have no idea that they are destined to play any important part in it. The New York Herald is calling loudly upon the President to go in and settle things; but as the coming elections will put an end to his dictatorship, he is powerless; and we think Congress will pause before it involves the country in such an perplexing controversy.

The fact is, the missionary and the schoolmaster, in their quiet way, will have to do the work, so far as the Mexican people are concerned, and a constant stream of immigration, which will be sure to follow these powerful agents of civilization, will furnish the fresh blood required for the social and political recuperation of those sick people. The Bible in the hands of the people will do more for them than all the constitutions that ever were penned.

Mr. Senator Sherman, who has just returned from a trip to the Rocky Mountains, made this statement at Mansfield last Saturday night:

"Just after the passage of the Civil Rights bill, and while the bill was in the hands of the President, he was invited to make a brief visit to Connecticut; and not wishing to leave Washington if the bill was to be vetoed, and desiring to bear to the Republicans of Connecticut a direct assurance of sympathy from the President, he sought an interview with him to learn whether he would veto the Civil Rights bill, and also what his personal feelings were regarding the Connecticut election. The President saw him, and they talked for three hours. The President expressed a desire for the success of the Republicans in Connecticut, though he very soon after assured a delegation of Copperheads that his sympathies were with them. The President approved the principles of the Civil Rights bill, but did not say he would sign it, though he left upon Senator Sherman's mind a strong impression that he would do so. The President further stated that he would sanction and urge, with all his power, the adoption of any amendment to the Constitution that Congress prepared, that did not include the exaction of universal negro suffrage in the South. The substance of this private conversation with the President Senator Sherman had not heretofore publicly stated. This testimony of the Senator, going to show the total personal unreliability of the President, is but confirmation of declarations made by Senator Trumbull and others, whose responsible statements in the Senate have not only not been refuted, but are not disputed."

The Mobile Register, edited by Mr. John Forsyth, a gentleman of considerable influence, and who has been spending some time in the city of New York, posting himself as to the intentions of the democrats and conservatives, makes this statement:

"But the final struggle in the great national contest will be at Washington in the organization of the next Congress. If the Conservatives hold their own, the South will be counted in the organization, and the two will constitute a quorum. Washington will be the battle ground—whether a bloody one or not, will depend on the fighting temper of the radicals. The true Union man do not regard the present Rump as a Congress of the United States in the Constitution, and their purpose is to organize a Congress of the Constitution. If the struggle resolves itself into an issue of force, the war of revolution started at the center will widen its circle, and soon set the whole North in a blaze."

The plot is a very pretty one; but the people will take good care to spoil it at the October elections.

WORDS OF VITAL INTEREST.—Will the thousands who read columns of frivolous verbiage every day devote FIVE MINUTES to the perusal of a few facts which concern them nearly? Our text is HEALTH, and we will put our commentary into a nutshell. WEAKNESS is indirectly the cause of all sickness; for if nature be strong enough to resist the morbific influences of the body, prostrate illness, of course they are powerless. Seek strength, then, before. Invigorate and regulate the system. When the quicksilver ranges from 80 to 96 degrees in the shade, the most athletic are enfeebled, and the weak are prostrated. It is at such a time that such an invigorator as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is urgently needed. What is the effect of this rare Vegetable Tonic? Would that all who have been its beneficiaries could condense their experience into this paragraph. They would tell the healthy to protect their health, they must use this great safeguard against the prevailing influences. They would exhort the weak to diseases of the stomach and impose stimulants and filling to this wholesome medicine. The sailing master, the voyageur, the soldier and mariner would cling to it as a rock in a weary land. They would, of dyspeptic pangs relieved, of appetite restored, of nervousness, of biliousness, of headaches cured, of disordered functions regulated, of poor emotia dissipated, of miasmic diseases barred, of fever and ague cured, of liver complaints arrested, of kidney irritation and toil relieved, of hope reanimated, and cheerfulness restored. Such are the effects of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. oct

WORDS OF VITAL INTEREST.—Will the thousands who read columns of frivolous verbiage every day devote FIVE MINUTES to the perusal of a few facts which concern them nearly? Our text is HEALTH, and we will put our commentary into a nutshell. WEAKNESS is indirectly the cause of all sickness; for if nature be strong enough to resist the morbific influences of the body, prostrate illness, of course they are powerless. Seek strength, then, before. Invigorate and regulate the system. When the quicksilver ranges from 80 to 96 degrees in the shade, the most athletic are enfeebled, and the weak are prostrated. It is at such a time that such an invigorator as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is urgently needed. What is the effect of this rare Vegetable Tonic? Would that all who have been its beneficiaries could condense their experience into this paragraph. They would tell the healthy to protect their health, they must use this great safeguard against the prevailing influences. They would exhort the weak to diseases of the stomach and impose stimulants and filling to this wholesome medicine. The sailing master, the voyageur, the soldier and mariner would cling to it as a rock in a weary land. They would, of dyspeptic pangs relieved, of appetite restored, of nervousness, of biliousness, of headaches cured, of disordered functions regulated, of poor emotia dissipated, of miasmic diseases barred, of fever and ague cured, of liver complaints arrested, of kidney irritation and toil relieved, of hope reanimated, and cheerfulness restored. Such are the effects of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. oct

FIFTH STREET.

VALUABLE IRON AND COAL LANDS AT SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of sundry writs of venditioni exponas, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Somerset county, and to me directed, there will be exposed to sale at public outcry, at Wellersburg, Somerset county, Pa., on the ELEVENTH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1866, at 10 o'clock A. M., all the right, title, interest and claim of the Somerset Iron and Coal Company of Pennsylvania, of, in and to the following Real Estate, situated in Somerset county, Pa., viz: Nos. 1 and 2 tracts of Cumberland, Md., consisting of some 2,000 acres of land, more or less, with extensive improvements, such as a first-class Blast Furnace, saw and grist mill, store building, Houses for workmen, Farm Houses, Barns, &c., &c.

The property is connected with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad by a branch Railroad from the property connecting with the Mt. Savage Railroad, six miles west of Cumberland. The property abounds in the best quality of stone coal, iron ore, limestone and Fire clay. The Blast Furnace is of superior construction, with an engine of sufficient capacity to blow two Furnaces, all in complete order. The houses for workmen, blacksmith shops, barns, and other buildings are all of capacity for extensive operations. The farms are all under fence, in good state of cultivation, with dwelling houses, barns, &c.

The quality of the Iron Ore, which is easy of access, may be judged of from the fact that during the last blast of 1,240 tons the average amount of ore used was 2½ tons to one ton of iron. The coal is of the best quality. Altogether there is no property in the country combining more advantages for the manufacture of iron either for the production of coal, either to an Eastern or Western market.

There are also strong indications of the property containing Rock Salt. A private company are now engaged in boring on a part of the land formerly belonging to the Somerset Company, with the most encouraging indications of striking salt soon. Some 1,200 acres can be used for boring purposes. The value of the above property can only be appreciated by a close and personal examination. It cannot well be destroyed.

Seized and taken in execution as the property of the Somerset Iron and Coal Company, and to be sold at suit of plaintiffs.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

TUESDAY, October 2, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, were as follows: Gold, 145¼@145¾; 1881's, 111¾; 5-20s, old, 111¾@111¾; do, new, 109@109¼; 10-40s, 98¾; 7-30s large, 106; do 2d and 3d issues, 105¾@105¾; small, 105½; Michigan Southern R. R., 86¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 85¾; Pittsburgh Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad 107¾; Erie, Railroad, 82¾; Western Union Telegraph Company, 35¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 106¾; Chicago & North Western, 43¾; do preferred, 79¾.

Government bonds are a shade lower in sympathy with the decline in the London market. Railroad stocks are even higher than in 1864, and operators seem determined to have a good share of the profits on the advance. In our local stock market there is but comparatively little doing, though there seems to be a disposition to sell anything that cannot be disposed of in a tight money market. Columbia Oil Stock is reported higher, though, thus far, we have not been unable to trace any sales at the advance.

—We have already announced that the new United States 5-20 bonds, which are to be used in funding the August 7-30 notes, have been prepared for issue and exchange. The second and third series of 7-30s cannot as yet be converted into bonds, as it is deemed the wiser plan to confine the negotiation to the first series, which mature in less than a year from this time, and amounting, as they do, to $250,000,000, they would cause embarrassment to the Treasury should payment be demanded in currency for any considerable part of them. The notes of June and July will not mature till the summer of 1868, consequently they cause less of apprehension. When the August notes are disposed of, there will be no very heavy payments on account of the principal of our public debt, except the compound interest notes and 6 per cent bonds maturing July 1, 1865, instead of May 1, which was the date of the other issues. Thus we shall have four series of 5-20s, those of 1862, 1864, May, 1865 and July, 1865.

—We have cable news from London and Liverpool to the 29th ult. The most important financial items furnished by it is the reduction by the Bank of England of the rate of discount to 6½ per cent. English Consols were reported 89¾@89¾ and U. S. 5-20s as steady at 71¾—a decline of ¼ on the last news published in these in this country. Cotton was very active, and higher with the advance in the port of Liverpool 50,000 bales below the estimate. All kinds of breadstuffs were active, and flour fully fifty cent per barrel higher. Provisions of this country still continue dull. The Investoria, now on her passage to this country, has $600,000, and the steamer Persia, over $700,000—the two together bringing $1,300,000 in one million and a quarter. The steamer Savannah left San Francisco for Panama with $1,032,000 in treasure, of which there were $158,500 consigned to New York. The United States Treasurer at Carson shipped $208,000 in gold per the last steamer.

—Says the New York Times of Monday: The import entries for the past week, including the dry good return in our last paper, amount to $4,575,900, against the total entries of $5,815,-—the same week last year. The export clearances for the week amount to $2,256,619 against $3,332,540 same week last year. The exports of specie amounts to $35,220, against $917,-—the same week last year. The customs for the week have been $1,100,000, of which $700,000 is gold. The receipts of internal revenue, from customs wise and by railroad are 3,541 bales. The number of emigrant of passengers arrived during the week, 5,609.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 2, 1866.

The produce markets are quiet and a little dull, and even the recent "flurry" in Wheat and Flour is beginning to subside somewhat. In values, however, there have been no fluctuations worthy of special mention.

ASHES—Firm and fairly active but unchanged. Sales of 20 tons Soda Ash at 6 for common, and 6¼ for refined, and 6 tons Pearls at 13.

APPLES—Dull, with a supply considerably in excess of the demand but unchanged. We quote $4.50@5.50 per barrel, according to quality—mostly at $5 to $5.50.

GRAIN—Wheat is firm and the market is almost entirely bare. Oats firmer and a shade higher sales of 1 car at 45 afloat from store at 48 to 50. No movement in Rye. Sale of 1 car old crop Spring Barley at 75; also, 1 car prime new on private terms supposed to be somewhat above $1.12 to $1.15. Corn is quoted firm at 65, on track and in elevator.

FLOUR—There is no falling off in the demand for Flour, and the market, which is not so much excited, prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote at $12 to $12.50 for Spring Wheat, and $13 to $13.50 for Winter Wheat brands. Rye Flour as Cornmeal unchanged.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is dull and a little weak but unchanged. Lard is quoted nominally held 20¼. Pork is dull and held firmly at $34. Stocks of all kinds pretty well reduced.

MILL FEED—Sale of 1 car Shorts at $1, and 1 car Seconds at $1.50. Bran is in good supply and dull. Middlings selling in small lots at $1.85 to $1.90.

CHEESE—Sale of 20 lbs Hamburg at 18; 25 do Western Reserve at 17, and 20 do Goshen at 22.

BUTTER—Is in good demand, and there is not much in store at present. We can report sales of some 10 firkins fresh packed at 35, and 30 bbls choice Roll at 30.

SEEDS—Steady, with a demand fully equal to the supply, and we can report regular sales at 65 to 70.

SEEDS—Flaxseed has declined 20c per bush in Philadelphia during the past few days, but, as yet, no change has taken place here. Still the supply in this market is very light. Timothy Seed is selling in a retail way at 3¾ to 4. No movement in Clover.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 2, 1866.

CRUDE—There was again quite a spirited demand for crude to-day, and while the market was decidedly firmer and more active, prices, as yet, have undergone no material change. We can report sales in lots of five thousand two hundred barrels at 14, all cash, and 225 at 13, packages included, and these may be regarded as the ruling quotations, though, towards evening some few holders were asking a slight advance. The present firmness and buoyancy is attributable to the fact that there is a much better inquiry for crude, and the result is a little better in the east, and refiners, who a day or two ago were unwilling to take hold at 14, are now pretty free buyers at that figure, and we approached that quotation here in little difficulty in closing out all the oil there is in this market at this time at that price.

REFINED—There was a decidedly better feeling in the market for refined to-day, and with an improved demand, prices are a shade higher. We can report sales of

[illegible] 25th Nov. to 15th Dec	36
[illegible] to November	35
[illegible] to November	35
15 Nov—In Philadelphia	45½
15 Oct—In Philadelphia	45

[illegible] do

Balance of the improvement above noted, there is very little of consequence, refiners generally refusing to operate in refined to hold off in expectation of a still stronger market and better prices. In addition to the sales above reported, it is reported that there had been sales of small lots of refined at 40 cents here, which is considered equivalent to 45½ delivered in Philadelphia, but these are, as reported, private sales.

RESIDUUM—There is some little inquiry for this article, and we can report sales at 25 to 26 per bbl—the latter figure when delivered.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals are beginning to fall off again, in consequence of navigation being somewhat restricted. Jas. Watkins got in 34 bbls, and Fisher & Bro. report having received 330 bbls during Monday and Tuesday.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, October 2, 1866.

CATTLE.

The supply of cattle on sale this week, although mostly up to last week in point of numbers, was nevertheless fully equal to the demand, and the market ruled a little dull and weak, and, as a general thing, prices ruled a fraction lower. Stock cattle were in tolerable demand and very dull, as drove buyers generally confine at this season of the year, to the purchase of fat cattle for the Eastern markets. Extra Steers brought from 8½@9c, and fair to good 7½@8c. Cows and Heifers were in fair demand at 4@6c. Hogs—Receipts have been light, and prices ruled firm at 7½@8c for fair to good. Sheep—Receipts were light, and prices ruled firm at 5@6c for fair to good.

The following are the sales reported:

D Daniels, 19 cattle, Steers, 8c; 2 Cows, 5c; 2 Heifers, 6c; 2 Bulls, 5
